FOREIGN POLICY REPORTS

133
13815

Index to Volume VIII

March 16, 1932 to March 1, 1933

Vol. IX, No. 3, Part II, April 12, 1933

25¢ a copy

Published Fortnightly by the

$5.00 a year

FOREIGN POLICY ASSOCIATION

INCORPORATED

EIGHTEEN EAST FORTY-FIRST STREET

NEW YORK, N.Y.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

		PAGE
No. 1	THE POLITICAL STRUCTURE OF THE SOVIET STATE: THE COMMUNIST PARTY	1
No. 2	THE POLITICAL STRUCTURE OF THE SOVIET STATE: THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNION	15
No. 3	RAILWAY RIVALRIES IN MANCHURIA BETWEEN CHINA AND JAPAN	29
No. 4	THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK IN GERMANY AND FRANCE	44
No. 5	THE WORLD DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE: FIRST STAGE	60
No. 6	AMERICAN COMMERCIAL POLICY AND THE WORLD CRISIS	68
No. 7	ITALY'S FINANCIAL STAKE IN ALBANIA	80
No. 8	JAPAN AND MANCHOUKUO	88
No. 9	GREAT BRITAIN AND THE IRISH FREE STATE	100
No. 10	THE LEAGUE AND THE SINO-JAPANESE DISPUTE	108
No. 11	THE RECONSTRUCTION OF LIBERIA	120
No. 12	THE SOVIET UNION AND JAPAN IN THE FAR EAST	136
No. 13	THE NATIONAL DEFENSE POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES	148
No. 14	THE WEAKNESS OF PEACE MACHINERY	160
No. 15	THE INTER-ALLIED DEBT	172
No. 16	THE STATE OF IRAQ	184
No. 17	THE RISE OF FASCISM IN JAPAN	196
No. 18	INTERNATIONAL ACTION ON THE LYTTON REPORT	208
No. 19	THE LAUSANNE REPARATION SETTLEMENT	220
No. 20	FRENCH FINANCIAL POLICY	232
No. 21	THE OTTAWA CONFERENCE	244
No. 22	AUSTRIA: THE PARALYSIS OF A NATION	256
No. 23	THE WORLD DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE: SECOND STAGE	268
No. 24	AMERICAN POLICY TOWARD THE SINO-JAPANESE DISPUTE	280
No. 25	TEN YEARS OF THE KUOMINTANG	292
No. 26	HITLER AND THE GERMAN POLITICAL CRISIS	308

A

Albania
Financial problems and League of Nations, 82-83
Italian investments, 85
Italy's 1925 financial convention, 83-84
Loan agreement of 1931, 85
Tirana Pact, 85-86

Anschluss, 256

Anti-War Pact
And acts of force falling short of war, 165-166
New interpretation of Kellogg-Briand pact, 283-285

Australia
At Imperial Conference, 249

Austria
Austro-German customs union plan, 256-257
Budget, 264
Creditanstalt, 259-260
Danubian union plan, 257
Debt, 261
Exchange restrictions, 260-261
Financial advisers, 264
Foreign trade situation, 260-261
Industrial crisis, 259
Lausanne loan, 262-264
Political outlook, 265-266
Stresa conference statement, 257-258
Transfer moratorium, 261-262
Unemployment, 264

B

Baldwin, Stanley
At Imperial Conference, 247

Barclay, Edwin, 126

Beneš, Eduard
Disarmament resolution, 268-271

Bennett, R. B.
At Imperial Conference, 247

Bisson, T. A.
Japan and Manchoukuo, 88-98
Railway Rivalries in Manchuria between China and Japan, 29-42
The Rise of Fascism in Japan, 196-206
Ten Years of the Kuomintang, 292-306

Borah, W. E.
On war debts, 180

Borodin, Michael, as Kuomintang adviser, 293-294, 297

Briand, Aristide
Resolution on Japanese withdrawal from China, 111

British Empire, see Imperial Economic Conference (for trade agreements)

Brüning, Heinrich
Government, 45-47
On armament, 63
Resigns as German Chancellor, 310

Buell, R. L.
American Policy toward the Sino-Japanese Dispute, 280-290
International Action on the Lytton Report, 208-218
The Reconstruction of Liberia, 120-134
The Weakness of Peace Machinery, 160-170

Bukharin, Nicholas, 13

Bulgaria
Greco-Bulgarian incident, 165

C

Canada
At Imperial Conference, 247-250
Industrial growth, table, 245

Capper resolution, 290

Cecil, Lord
On aggressive weapons, 62

Chamberlain, Neville
On debts, 224

China
America in Caribbean, Japan in Manchuria, comparison, 287-288
American cooperation with League of Nations, 109-110, 116
American-Japanese relations strained, 288-289
American non-recognition doctrine and Manchoukuo, 286-287
American note of January 7, 1932, 114
American policy in Sino-Japanese dispute, 280-290
A. Briand, resolution on Japanese withdrawal, 111-112
Chinchow taken, 93
Commission of Enquiry (Lytton Commission) appointed by League, 112-113
Commission of Enquiry, personnel, 118
Committee of Nineteen, 117-118
Franco-Japanese understanding rumored, 169
P. B. Gilbert sits in League Council as Paris Pact signatory, 110
Harbin taken, 93
Hulutao Harbor, 35-36
Invokes Articles X and XV of League Covenant in Shanghai disturbance, 114-116
Japan-Manchoukuo alliance, 214-215
Japanese military occupation of Manchuria, 91-93
Japan's "five fundamental principles," 111-112
Japan's international obligations, 216-217
Jehol invasion, 280
Kuomintang, Borodin as adviser, 293-294, 297

119202

China (continued)
Kuomintang, Madame Sun Yat-sen's views, 303-306
Kuomintang, Nanking régime, 1927-1932, 297-303
Kuomintang, political rivalries in, 298-302
Kuomintang, revolutionary period, 1923-1927, 293-297
League action on Sino-Japanese dispute reviewed, 213-215
League Assembly, special session on Shanghai, 116-117
League Council on neutral committee action, 109-110
Lytton Commission findings, 208-211
Lytton Commission recommendations, 211-212
Manchoukuo, evolution, 93-96
Manchoukuo, government and policies, 95-96
Manchuria, economic reorganization, 96-98
Manchurian autonomy, 212-213
Manchurian conflict, causes, 89-91
Nakamura affair, 90-91
"Parallel Lines" protocol, 38-39
Peace machinery weakness in Sino-Japanese dispute, 160-170
Railway conference of 1931, 41
Railways in Manchuria, Chinese financed, 35-38
Railways in Manchuria, Japanese financed, 30-35
Railways, Sino-Japanese competition's economic effects, 40-41
"Red" Russian action in Manchoukuo charged, 145
Russo-Chinese agreement on Outer Mongolia, 138
Sanctions question, 217-218
Shanghai armistice, 118
Sino-Soviet clash over Chinese Eastern Railway, 139-140
Soviet influence in Outer Mongolia, 139
Soviet stand on Sino-Japanese dispute, 140-146
Stimson on Nine-Power Treaty, 282
Tsitsihar, 92, 94
Wanpaoshan incident, 89-90

Christy, Cuthbert, 124

Collins, R. A., 158

Committee of Nineteen, see China

Corfu case, 164-165

D

Danubian Union, see Austria

Davis, N. H., 273

Dean, V. M.
Austria: The Paralysis of a Nation, 256-266
The Political Structure of the Soviet State: The Communist Party, 1-14
The Political Structure of the Soviet State: The Government of the Union, 15-28
The Soviet Union and Japan in the Far East, 136-146

Dean, V. M., and M. S. Wertheimer
The Political Outlook in Germany and France, 44-58

Debts and Reparation
Armament costs and debt payments, table, 181
W. E. Borah's views, 180
Cancellation, discussion at Lausanne, 225-226
Cancellation, points for and against, 182
"Capacity to Pay," 176
Contraction of inter-allied debt to United States, 172-175
Credits, how used, 174-175
French stand at Lausanne, 224
Funded debts, table, 178
Funding agreements, 176-178, 242
"Gentlemen's Agreement," 226, 229
German obligations outstanding, table, 228
German stand at Lausanne, 224-225
Great Britain and "clean slate," 224
Hoover Moratorium, 178-179, 180
Italian stand at Lausanne, 226
Lausanne Conference, political background, 221-223
Lausanne settlement analyzed, 226-230
Liberty Loan Acts, 173-175
Loans of United States to foreign governments, table, 174
J. R. MacDonald on end of reparation, 228
A. W. Mellon on interest rate, 177
F. D. Roosevelt's views, 180
Status of debts to United States, table, 179
Transfer problem, 181
Unfunded obligations, 178

DeValera, Eamon, 103-106

Disarmament, World Conference
Aggressive weapons, 61-62
Air forces agreement, 269
Armament costs and debt payments, table, 181
Beneš resolution, 268-271
British proposals, 278
H. Brüning on equality, 63
Chemical warfare agreement, 269-270
Equality, 63
Equality, five-power declaration, 273-274
Equality, French reply to Germany's claim, 272-273
A. Henderson on Conference aims, 61
Herriott plan, 271, 277-278
Hoover plan, 271, 274-277
Land forces agreement, 269
Points of agreement and conflict summarized, 278
Soviet proposes progressive disarmament, 65
A. Tardieu offers plan for League police, 64-65

E

Economic conditions
American commercial policy and the world crisis, 68-78

F

Firestone agreements, 121-123, 131

France
Anglo-French pact, 229
Answers German equality claim, 272-273
Balance of payments, table, 234-235
Cabinets since 1928, 55-57
Capital, repatriation of short-term, 237
Chamber of Deputies grouping, 53
Commercial policy, 240-242
Foreign policy's influence on election of Deputies, 50-51
Franco-American commercial relations, 241-242
Franco-German commercial treaty negotiations, 242
Franco-Japanese understanding rumored, 169
Gold problem, 234-240
Gold reserves, table, 237
Herriot on security, 271
Loans to foreign governments, table, 236
Party alignments, 53-54
Plan for League police, 64-65
Quota system, 241
Reciprocity policy, 242
Senate grouping, 55
See also Debts and Reparation

G

"Gentlemen's Agreement," 226, 229

Germany
Brüning government, 45-47
Brüning government resigns, 310
Communists, 47
Equality claim, French reply, 272-274
Franco-German commercial treaty negotiations, 242
"Harzburg Front," 48-49
A. Hitler becomes Chancellor, 317
Hitler-von Hindenburg interview, 313
Hitler-von Papen Cabinet, 318
National Socialists, 47-50
Party power changes, chart, 309
Political deadlock, July-November, 1932, 312-315
Political situation, April-July, 1932, 308-312
Presidential elections, 1932, table, 49-50
Reichstag elections, 1930-1932, table, 316
Republic, struggle for, 44-45
Von Papen-Schleicher Cabinet, 310
Von Schleicher Cabinet, 317
See also Debts and Reparation

Gibson, H. S.
On aggressive weapons, 62
Presents program at Disarmament Conference, 66

Gilbert, P. B., 110

Gold
Distribution of monetary supply, table, 76
France's problem, 234-240

Gonzalez-Prada, Alfredo
On non-intervention, 165

Great Britain
Anglo-French pact, 229
Irish Free State relations, 100-106
Relinquishes Iraq mandate, 184-194
See also Imperial Economic Conference

Greece
Greco-Bulgarian incident, 165

H

Henderson, Arthur
On Disarmament Conference aims, 61

Herriot, Edouard
On Lausanne Conference, 230
On security, 271
Reparation policy, 221-222

Hindenburg, Paul von, 49-50; interview with Hitler, 313

Hitler, Adolf, 48-49
See also Germany

Hoover, Herbert
Debt moratorium, 178-180
Disarmament plan, 271
Hoover-Stimson non-recognition policy, 286
On Army and Navy strength, 158

Humphreys, Sir Francis, 187

I

Imperial Economic Conference (London), 246-247

Imperial Economic Conference (Ottawa)
Agreements summarized, 248-250
British Empire's need for markets, 245-246
British Inter-Imperial trade, table, 246
Canada's stand, 247-249
Dominion promises, 249
Empire content, 250
Great Britain's obligations, 248
Imperial unity trend, 246
Most-favored-nation clause, 250
Soviet imports, 248-249

India
At Imperial Conference, 250

Intervention
Gonzalez-Prada on non-intervention, 165

Inukai, Tsuyoshi, 204

Iraq
- Anglo-Iraqi treaty of 1922, 185
- Anglo-Iraqi treaty of 1930, 186, 191-192
- Foreign policy control, 192
- Guarantees to League, 188-191
- Sir Francis Humphreys on ending mandate, 187
- Internal situation, 187-188
- League of Nations fixes conditions to end a mandate, 186-187
- Mandate ends, 184-194
- Mandates Commission recommendations, 187-194
- Map, 193

Irish Free State
- Anglo-Irish treaty of 1921, 101-102
- Dáil Eireann Formed, 101
- De Valera moves to abolish oath of allegiance by amending constitution, 103-105
- Easter rebellion of 1916, 101
- Fianna Fáil program, 103
- Home Rule Bill of 1912, 101
- Land Annuities issue, 105
- Settlement question, 105-106

Italy
- Attitude at Lausanne Conference, 226
- Financial stake in Albania, 80-86

J

Japan
- Fascism's rise, 196-206
- Fascist labor parties, 202-203
- Fascist societies, 201-202
- Financial troubles, 203-205
- Inukai assassinated, 204
- Minseito government, 197-199
- Russia and Outer Mongolia, 139
- Saito government, 204-206
- Seiyukai government, 203-204
- Soviet fishery agreement, 138
- Soviet, modified attitude to, 145

See also China (for Sino-Japanese dispute)

K

Kalinin, Michael, 15

Kellogg-Briand pact, see Anti-War Pact

King, C.D.B., 122, 123, 125

L

Lausanne Conference, see Debts and Reparation

League of Nations
- Herriot disarmament plan to strengthen Covenant, 276
- International police force proposed by France, 64-65

League of Nations (continued)
- Iraq mandate, 186-194
- Liberian reconstruction, 128-133

See also China (for Sino-Japanese dispute)

Liberia
- American notes on forced labor, 124-126
- American reservation on League plan, 132
- Barclay becomes President, 126
- Brunot committee report and Liberian reply, 129-130
- Christy commission, 125-127
- Financial trouble, 123
- Firestone agreements, 121-123, 131
- Firestone labor policy, 125
- Forced labor investigation, 124-128
- International receivership of 1912, 121
- King resigns as President, 125
- Kru revolt, 127-128
- League of Nations plan for reconstruction, 128-133
- "Pawns," 124-125
- Yellow fever, 124, 134

Litvinoff, Maxim
- On Soviet disarmament plan, 65

Lytton Commission (Commission of Enquiry), see China

M

MacDonald, J. R.
- On reparation, 228
- Opens Lausanne Conference, 223

Manchoukuo, see China

Manchuria, see China

Maps
- Manchurian railway system, 31
- Iraq and its neighbors, 193

Mellon, A. W.
- On inter-allied debt interest rate, 177

Mongolia, Outer
- Russo-Chinese agreement, 138
- Soviet influence, 139

N

"Nation in Arms," 148-149, 151

Newfoundland
- At Imperial Conference, 249

New Zealand
- At Imperial Conference, 249

Non-intervention, see Intervention

Non-recognition policy of Hoover and Stimson, 286

O

O'Ryan, General J. F.
- Citizen army proposal, 152-153

Ottawa Conference, see Imperial Economic Conference

P

Papen, Franz von
Cabinets, 310, 318
Lausanne statement, 225
Reparation policy, 221

Peace Machinery
Anti-War Pact and acts falling short of war, 164-168
Article X and invasion, 167
Article XVI, difficulty in applying, 169
Composition, 161
Criticism, 162-163
Interpretation of Covenant on acts of force falling short of war, 164-168
Legal defects, 163-168
Political obstacles to prevention of war, 168-170
Weakness in Sino-Japanese dispute, 160-170

Permanent Court of International Justice
On Austro-German customs union plan, 256

Portsmouth treaty, 137, 143-144

R

Reber, Samuel, Jr., 128

Roosevelt, F. D.
On war debts, 180

Russia
Agrarian problem, 10-11
All-Union Communist party, 14
All-Union Congress, 18-19
All-Union Council of People's Commissars, 19-20
Bolshevik coup d'état of 1917, 4
China, Agreement on Outer Mongolia, 138
Class distinctions, 9
Communist party, 6-14
Constitution, Soviet, 5
Council of Labor and Defense, 20-21
Disarmament plan, 65
Electoral procedure, chart, 15-18
Emancipation Edict of 1861, 1
Duma, 3
Finance Commissariat, 21-22
Imperial Economic Conference action on Soviet imports, 248-249
Japan, relations with, 136-146
Judicial system, 24-26
Komintern, 14
Komsomol, 12
Lenin re-interprets Marxism, 7-11
OGPU (Secret Police), 23-24
"Partyline," 13-14
Politbureau, 12-13
Proletarian dictatorship, 7-9
Proletarian rise, 2-3
Red Army, 26-28

Russia (continued)
Revolution of 1905, 3
Sino-Japanese dispute, attitude on, 140-146
Sino-Soviet clash over Chinese Eastern Railway, 139-140
Soviet Union formation, table, 5-6
State Planning Commission (Gosplan), 21
Third International, 14
Workers' and Peasants' Inspection Commissariat, 22-23
Yacheika, 12
Zemstvos, 3

S

Sanctions
Capper resolution, 290

Schleicher, Kurt von, 310, 317

Self-Defense, 283-285

Soviet Union, see Russia

Staley, Eugene
Italy's Financial Stake in Albania, 80-86

Stalin, Iosif, 10, 11, 13, 14

Stewart, M. S.
American Commercial Policy and the World Crisis, 68-78
The Inter-Allied Debt, 172-182
The Ottawa Conference, 244-254

Stimson, H. L.
On Anti-War Pact, 282, 285
On neutrality, 285
On Nine-Power Treaty, 282

Stone, W. T.
The National Defense Policy of the United States, 148-158
The World Disarmament Conference: First Stage, February 2—March 17, 1932, 60-66
The World Disarmament Conference: Second Stage, March 17, 1932—January 1933, 268-278

Stresa Conference, see Austria

Sun Yat-sen, Mme.
On Kuomintang, 303-306

T

Tardieu, André
Danubian union plan, 257
Offers plan for League police, 64-65
Tariff, effect of increases, table, 72-73

Trotzky, Leon, 13

U

United States
Army organization under National Defense Act, 153-158
Caribbean intervention compared with Japan in Manchuria, 287-288
Citizen army, O'Ryan plan, 152-153

United States (continued)
Citizens' military training, 157-158
Commercial policy, background, 69-70
Commercial policy, proposed changes, 77-78
Creditor position, 70-72
Defense plan of War Department, 151-152
Defense policy, 148-158
Disarmament Conference program, 66
Disarmament, Hoover plan, 271, 277-278
Foreign obligations, obstacles to repayment, 72-77
Franco-American commercial relations, 241-242
Gold reserve decline, table, 239
Hoover on Army and Navy strength, 158
International payments, tables, 69, 70, 71
Liberia, relations with, 121-129, 132
Merchant marine, government aid, 74-75
National Defense Act, origin, 149-153
National Guard, 156-157
Non-recognition doctrine, 286-287
Possible policies of independent action, isolation or international organization, 289-290
Regular Army, 154-156
Reserve Corps, 157
Tariff increases, effect, tables, 72-73
Tourist trade drop, 77
See also Debts and Reparation

Upton, Gen. Emory, 150

V

Von Hindenburg, see Hindenburg

Von Papen, see Papen

Von Schleicher, see Schleicher

W

Wertheimer, M. S.
Hitler and the German Political Crisis, 308-318
The Lausanne Reparation Settlement, 220-230

Wertheimer, M. S. and V. M. Dean
The Political Outlook in Germany and France, 44-58

Wilde, J. C. de
French Financial Policy, 232-242
The League and the Sino-Japanese Dispute, 108-118

Williams, W. L.
Great Britain and the Irish Free State, 100-106
The State of Iraq, 184-194

Wilson, Woodrow
On defense policy, 150

World Economic Conference
Preparatory action by Lausanne Conference, 228